

Grammata on the Latin Rite Monastic Breviary

All monastic clergy are naturally held to pray the liturgical Hours every day either in community or in private. In the western Orthodox tradition (Latin Rite), all Service books are to be chosen from the so-called Tridentine style.

We hereby issue the following Monastic Diurnal to be used by all Latin Rite monastics of the Exarchate:

The Monastic Diurnal: The Day Hours of the Monastic Breviary in Latin and English

As published by Saint Michael's Abbey. This is a republication of the 1963 edition of the Benedictine Hours of Prime, Lauds, Terce, Sext, None, Vespers and Compline — in Latin and English in parallel columns for all the feasts and seasons in the traditional western calendar. The Latin text is the traditional Vulgate Psalter. ISBN-10: 090707765X or ISBN-13: 978-0907077657.

Given on the first day of January 2018:

+Melchizedek
Patriarchal Exarch

